CHEC – This weekend the CHEC committee have an update on the Parish Hall Extension – Phase 1 of the project is now completed for inspection.

November – to awake a memory – to ask a prayer. This month is a special time to remember our loved ones who have died. Prayer for the Holy Souls is a time honoured tradition in the church. There is a Memory Box beside the Baptismal Font in which we can place all names of those we wish to pray for during November. There are envelopes for offerings and special sheets to write the names available in the Narthex. Those placed in the Memory Box will be remembered at every Mass during this month.

Adoration In Remembrance – We shall have a day of adoration on Tuesday 15th November following the 10am Mass until 9pm. Feel free to come and pray for deceased relatives and friends any time during the day. We shall conclude the day at 8.15pm with a liturgy of remembrance during which we shall place the names of those we have known and loved in front of the Blessed Sacrament on the altar. Please come and pray for YOUR special intention.
