Thank You – To the many people who have helped to celebrate these sacred days. To all the musicians, singers, readers, lay ministers, servers, ushers, collectors, IT people, flower arrangers, church cleaners and others, we are grateful for such an effective team of people that help to make St Teresa's such a vibrant community.

Welcome also to Mary Ama Baiden received into full communion with the Catholic Church. Congratulations to all the above and Chris Bouchez who received the sacrament of Confirmation. Last but not least, congratulations to Roselda Drummond who received her First Communion. We keep them and all their sponsors in our prayers.

St Teresa's School Congratulations to year 5 who did such a fantastic presentation of the Easter story last Tuesday evening. Gratitude to school staff for all the creative background material and support. The children were amazing and of course they will always remember the story because they dramatized it so well. On Holy Thursday, the whole school prayed the Stations of the Cross with some beautiful reflections on the journey of Jesus to Calvary. Parents have reason to rejoice. This is evangelisation at its best.
